

Press release

17th May celebration at The Norwegian Klub, London

By Elisabeth Turmo
May 02. 2016

London- At this years May 17th celebration at The Norwegian Klub in London the Norwegian violinist- and hardingfiddle- virtouso Elisabeth Turmo will be performing. She will present a program which includes both classical pieces as well as Norwegian traditional tunes. She will be wearing the exotic National Clothing of Norway.

"She appears as aborn soloist" - Jostein Pedersen

Event Information

At the 17th of May it is the celebration of the Norwegian constitution. This is a huge celebration all over Norway and it is also celebrated in London. The event is taking place at the beautiful King Harald V Room at the Norwegian Klub, 4 St James`s Square. It will be served champagne in the reception from 6 pm and eventually a delicious three course dinner. The dress code is black tie or bunad(national clothing). The cost of the event is 80 pounds for members and 90 pounds for non-members (max 1 guest per member).

Please contact Catharina M. Patjas, Catharina@dennorskeklub.co.uk by May 13th if you want to book a ticket. The event is very popular and got quickly sold out last year, so book your ticket early. <http://www.dennorskeklub.co.uk/events.html>

About Elisabeth Turmo

Elisabeth Turmo(b.1993) is a Norwegian violinist currently living in London, studying at the Royal College of Music. She is known for her stagepresence and singing tonequality as well as conveying the stormful temperament of a Northern Norwegian.«Soloist Elisabeth Turmo impressed the audience with her intense playing and brought out the feelings to many.» -Helgeland Magazine
Elisabethhas recently had solo performances with orchestras including the Arctic Philharmonic, Oslo Chamber Orchestra, Barratt Due Symphony Orchestra, Toppen International Festival Orchestra.

Elisabeth Turmo has received numerous prizes and scholarships such as the Pjotr Janowskis scholarship,
Thomas Fearnley, Heddy og Nils Astrup scholarship, 1. prize in the Norwegian National YouthCompetition.

Press contact

For more information, please contact

Name: Elisabeth Turmo

Mobil: 0047 918 05 138

Email:

elisabethtur@hotmail.com